A FRESH APPROACH WITH A CUTTING EDGE

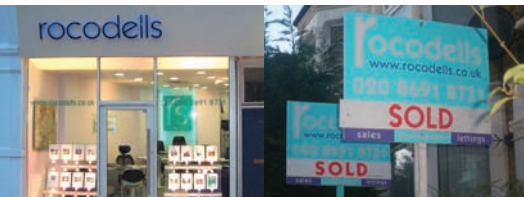

Rocodells Estate Agents have been established on Brockley Road for over 35 years. Our modern approach to all aspects of estate agency combined with our traditional values make us the first call for many new and existing clients within the area.

As one of the most successful independent agents within our area, customer service and unrivalled knowledge are the foundations that Rocodells have built their business upon, with past clients regularly recommending our services to others and also using our Estate Agency themselves, time and time again.

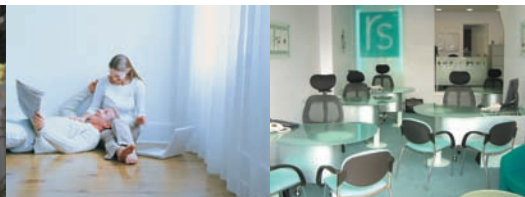

When progressing your sale through to a smooth and satisfactory completion Rocodells stand out head and shoulders above the competition. Our sales progressions are all dealt with within our office and you will always find familiar faces within our branch.

Our services include:

- Residential Sales
- Property Management
- Lettings
- New Homes & Land
